

On the Road with PMQ - November 2015

From Pigeon Forge, Tennessee to Shanghai, China, the PMQ crew travels the country and the world in search of pizza trendsetters and moneymakers.

Miami—Crust

Chef Klime Kovaceski and his wife, Anita, are already building buzz at their recently opened Crust (crust-usa.com), a concept that combines creative pies—such as the Grilled Octopus Pizza, featuring prosciutto, Kalamata olives and roasted red peppers—with a Mediterranean-flair menu. Tracy Morin, PMQ's senior copy editor, worked her way through the eclectic menu, from Yuca Fries to Palacinka (Eastern European dessert crepes), after which the social media-savvy owners promptly tweeted to followers about her visit.
